

Border County Notes

Friday, May 1 1908

CARROLL.

Mrs. John Richeson, aged 56 years, died of Bright's disease at her home, west of Coloma, Sunday.

Granville Hall died of Bright's disease at his home in Hill township Sunday at the age of 70 years.

Miss Frances Ethel England, aged 23 years, died of consumption Sunday at her home, two miles southeast of Coloma.

Mrs. Frances Yehle, aged 84 years, a native of Germany, died Friday at her home in Tina after a lingering illness.

Allen Miller, the negro who stole four fine hogs from Joe Rea's ranch three weeks ago, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary Wednesday.

The body of Ray Warwiock, the 12-year-old boy who committed suicide in Kansas City Monday night was taken to DeWitt for burial. His mother who was Miss May Foster, was living in De Witt when married.

Benjamin Franklin Wheeler, aged 68 years, died at his home in Plymouth Wednesday. Deceased was an old soldier and was wounded twice in the battle of Shiloh from which injuries he never fully recovered.

A barn belonging to Nathaniel Humphries of Rockford township was struck by lightning last Friday night and was completely destroyed by fire, together with the contents, consisting of feed, harness, farming implements and two brood mares with young colts. There was only $250 insurance.

A. H. Cochran's store at Leta was burglarized last Thursday night. The intruder backed a wagon up to the door, gained an entrance and then proceeded to blow open the safe. He secured about $22 from the safe. He then proceeded to help himself to what merchandise he cared for. It is not known how much goods he took away with him, and there is no clue to his identity.

Mrs. Thomas P. Taylor, who lives two miles east of Carrollton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nannie Ford of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, Wednesday morning. Three weeks ago Mrs. Taylor and son, Floyd, went to Oklahoma to attend the marriage of her daughter and visit six of her children who live at that place, and her husband did not know she was sick until he received a telegram saying she was dead.

MARRIAGES.

Joseph Miller and Miss Theresa Fecher, both of Wakenda.

Ernest Ruper and Miss Nora Johnson, both of Bogard.

Miller Stevens and Miss Binta Brice, both of near Norborne.

John H. Dowling and Miss Ernestine A. Steimel, both of Wakenda.

Dr. Edgar Briscoe, Jr., and Miss Grace White, both of Carrollton.

HOWARD.

Sheriff Gibson of Howard county has just returned from Jefferson City where he escorted two negroes to the penitentiary recently convicted in the circuit court for grand larceny. They will serve terms of two years, each.

J. F. Gantner, an experienced rick manufacturer of Pilot Grove, Mo., has bought eight acres of land from Joe Maupin, near the Katy railroad track, at 100 per acre and will remove his brick plant to Fayette.

The clay is admirably suited, for all kinds of brick, tiling, etc., and Fayette feels proud of the enterprise.

Wallace Andrews of Fayette last May seduced under, promise of marriage, Miss Area Brown, also of Fayette and then refused to consummate the nuptial vows. The girl, being under legal age, her father had young Andrews arrested on the charge of seduction, and after the case was tried in a justice court and a clear case made against him he compromised his case by marrying Miss Brown in open court. Andrews lived with his wife at her father's only nine days, then abandoned her and left for parts unknown. He was finally located in Iowa by Sheriff Gibson of Howard county and arrested and brought back and tried, by a jury, in the circuit court at Fayette, last week for wife abandonment, and convicted and sentenced to one year in the county jail and a fine of $500.

MARRIAGES.

Earl Taylor of Fayette and Miss Rose Stetz of Boonville.

W. H. Hutsell of Boonsboro and Miss Essie Amick of Glasgow.

Jack M. Wayland and Miss Mae Filand, both of Fayette.

Earl Skiles of Lincoln, Neb., and Miss Eva Hickerson of near Lisbon.

Virgil A. Buson of St. Louis and Miss Charlotte Lewis of Fayette.

LINN.

The Purdin high school turned out four graduates Saturday all young men.

B. F. Carter has been re-appointed as postmaster at Brown for a term of four years.

Urah Lee, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Morgan of Brookfield, died after a short illness Tuesday.

The Easter edition of the Linn Bulletin was one of the neatest which came to our table. It showed that the merchants of hat town believe in printer's ink.

Marshall Allison, an inmate of the Linn county infirmary at Linneus, died Saturday. His death was caused by a fracture of the bones of his hip and locomotor ataxia.

The death angel shadowed the home of Eld. and Mrs. Alfred Munyon of near Marceline Wednesday and carried away the eldest daughter, Ethel Leah, aged 11 years.

Eld. William Downing passed away at his home in Purdin Sunday, having reached the ripe old age of 84 years. The deceased leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his death.

Miss Theresa Gucker of near Marceline committed suicide last Thursday night by hanging. She was the eldest daughter of Geo. Gucker, Sr., being 23 years old. Continued poor health was attributed as the cause of her deed.

A boom has struck Bucklin and prosperity is rampant. A dozen or more new houses are in the course of construction and the new coal mine, recently opened up, is going to be operated on an extensive scale. 'Rah for Bucklin.

Among the ailments now prevailing at this season such as measles, mumps and whooping-cough, St. Catherine has added another affliction. A correspondent says there are a number of new cases of matrimony reported to be on tap this week.

The death of Charles H. Williams occurred at the family residence, south of Brookfield, Monday.

The Official Tests show Dr. Price's Baking Powder to be most efficient in strength, of highest purity and healthfulness

DR. PRICE'S

CREAM BAKING POWDER

No Alum, No Phosphate of Lime

No alum or alum-phosphate baking powder has been guaranteed or approved by the United States or any State authorities. The advertising claims of the alum powder makers to that effect are "faked."

day. About a week before his death he had one of his legs amputated at the hip, made necessary by decaying bone. He was 37 years old and leaves a wife and parents to mourn.

Mack Arnold, one of the eldest native Missourians, died at the home of his son-in-law, Dudley Phillips of near Shafter Monday. He was born in Howard county, Mo., January 1, 1820, and moved to Linn county in 1839 where he resided until his death.

The preliminary examination of Warren Humburd, col., of Marceline, charged with attacking the prosecuting attorney of Linn county, Alpha Burns, with a pocket knife, resulted in his release Monday. The case was argued before Justice I. P. Kendrick. B. L. White represented the state and Clarence Kendrick appeared for the defense. A number of witnesses were examined, including colored friends of the accused who were with him on the date of the alleged offense. They testified that Humburd was addressing his remarks and pointing his knife at somebody else, certainly not the prosecuting attorney. Several white witnesses were examined, but their testimony did not satisfy Justice Kendrick who was convinced after giving the matter close attention that the evidence was not sufficient to hold Humburd.

MARRIAGES.

John W. Griffin and Miss Sadie Durbin, both of Bucklin.

Geo. M. Dray of Linneus and Miss Lucy Hunter of Purdin.

Roy Hamilton of Marshall and Miss Gladys Agin of Linneus.

Jos. A. Buswell and Miss Ella E. Bailey, both of near Shelby.

Edgar P. Russell and Miss Mabel A. Gray, both of Brookfield.

Peter J. Walsh and Miss Mabel Hannum, both of Brookfield.

Archie R. Austin and Miss Elizabeth Peters, both of Brown-Eliz.

I. Birt Wensel of Haseville, and Miss Ella N. Lewis of Humphreys, Mo.

Riley R. Pankey and Miss Hally L. Groetcke, both of Brookfield.

LIVINGSTON.

A work horse belonging to Will Overton, south of Chillicothe was killed by lightning Tuesday night.

Mrs. Lottie McCormick, aged 78 years, died at the home of her son, J. L. McCormick of Chillicothe, Thursday.

Edward Wright, aged 59 years, one of Chillicothe's best known colored citizens, died Thursday evening of pneumonia fever.

Mrs. E. A. Hurdle, aged 83 years, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Thorne Gibbons of Chillicothe, Wednesday morning.

Judge Archibald Thompson, aged 77 years, died of lung trouble Friday evening at his home in the west part of Jackson township.

A 15-year-old boy giving his name as Arthur Hewey of Laredo was arrested in Chillicothe Saturday evening for being drunk and disorderly.

The 2-months-old baby of C. S. Miller of Gravesville was badly injured about the head Saturday morning by a large piece of plastering falling from the ceiling onto the baby.

Chillicothe was infested with tramps Wednesday. The police ran out 25 during the day who were hitting back doors for hand-outs. A number of ladies of the houses was insulted, but a hurry up call sent in at police headquarters was quickly answered and by night the city was again cleared of hoboes.

H. M. Patterson, owner of the Meadville telephone exchange, mysteriously disappeared from home Saturday afternoon and was not heard from any more until he showed up at Mooresville Monday afternoon. On being told that his relatives were distressed about him he went to "central" and called them up and told them of his safety and then returned home that night. He refused to give any reason for his conduct.

Citizens living near the Milwaukee depot in Chillicothe were aroused from their beds shortly after 10 o'clock Wednesday night by the sudden shooting of a number of revolvers. After investigation it was discovered that the gang of Italian laborers which had been imported there by the Milwaukee Railroad Co. to work on the section, was giving a farewell salute on their departure from the city.

A man named Rose, who travels for a Chicago concern, was badly worsted in a fist encounter, which occurred in the lobby of the Leeper hotel in Chillicothe about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, with John Brant, a well-known tailor of Chillicothe. Mr. Brant's daughters were returning home about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening when Rose tried to play "masher" with the result stated above.

MARRIAGES.

Edward Damm and Miss Roselea Bauer, both of Chillicothe.

Claude A. Stone of Laredo and Miss Edna Pearl Ward of Chula.

John Hogan and Miss Lauretta Damm, both of Chillicothe.

MACON.

The Masonic lodge of Macon contemplate giving a big picnic St. John's day, June 24. Arrangements are being made.

Judge Myers Campbell of Kirksville held the scales of justice in the Macon circuit court last week in the absence of Judge Shelton.

The high school ball team of Kirksville went to Macon Friday and played the latter high school boys. The score was 5 to 4 in favor of Macon.

Sunday Mrs. Ferdinand Smith, an old and respected lady of Ten Mile, fell dead while talking to her son. Her aged husband was at Excelsior Springs at the time of her death and was unable to come to attend the funeral services which were held at the Baptist church Monday.

L. G. Manlove, who for two years has been city marshal of Macon, is, on his record, asking the people of Macon county to make him the nominee for sheriff. The fines paid by his arrests almost paid his salary, and the total arrests made by him in the past two years was 480.

Justice Charles Ayers of Macon did a land office business in his court Monday morning, having three cases for violation of the law. Wm. Draper, col., charged with carrying concealed weapons pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $50 and costs. The African could not make good so he was given 20 days in jail as an offset. At the same time Arthur Oliver was sentenced to 10 days in jail for assault on Draper. The court finally wound up the morning's work by assessing a fine of 10 days in jail against Wm. Brunnell for being engaged in a crap game. The Macon police court took a hand in the crap game by fining several others who were caught "rolling the bones."

MARRIAGES.

Fred Butler of Excelsior and Miss Blanch Brook of St. Louis.

RANDOLPH.

Tom Boyle, an old and highly-respected citizen of Huntsville, died at that place Saturday.

Mrs. Jane Robb aged 81 years, died after a month's illness at her home in Moberly Tuesday evening.

The first loon seen in this part of the country in a long time appeared on the tank pond in Moberly Thursday.

Mrs. J. D. Whorter, aged 77 years, died after a prolonged illness at her home in Moberly Wednesday afternoon.

Thomas Boyle, aged 62 years, a native of Ireland, died of a complication of diseases at his home in Huntsville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calvin of near Clinton Hill had the sixth toe amputated on the left foot of their 10-months-old son Monday.

Geo. Schwab, Jr., of Moberly while playing in the woods a few days ago fell off a big rock and broke two of his ribs.

John McMerry, who works on the farm of J. L. Black, north of Moberly, was thrown from a horse Saturday and had his left arm dislocated.

At a local option meeting in Moberly Wednesday afternoon a committee was appointed to determine as to the advisability of publishing a local option paper.

George E. Smith, one of Moberly's pioneer painters and paper-hangers, died in Kansas City Friday afternoon after several months' suffering from cancer. His remains were taken back to Moberly for interment.

Dave Barnes, the veteran meat cutter who is now employed at Ragsdale & Son's meat market in Moberly had three ribs broken and his side badly bruised Monday by a fall down a flight of steps in the rear part of the market.

Isetta Rounds, a Moberly negro, was arrested Tuesday morning charged with stealing two ten dollar bills from Mrs. Owens, proprietress of a boarding house. The police on failing to find the money looked in the cook stove and found burnt paper which they think was the money.

MARRIAGES.

L. C. White and Miss Katherine Tait, both of Moberly.

Tom Sweetman and Miss Ethel Harris, both of Clark.

Ollie F. Millering and Miss Ida Oldham, both of Moberly.

Elisha H. Duncan, and Mrs. Daisy Howard, both of Moberly.

Ritchie Spence of Moberly and Miss Mary Carney of Hannibal.

Frank Hellensmith and Miss Mary Glancey, both of Moberly.

John Parmetree and Miss Liz-zie Colley, both of near Rucker.

Elmer M. Moberly and Miss Lora A. Barber, both of Moberly.

Ben R. Hutchison and Miss Pearl Mae Barnett, both of Moberly.

Ward Mott of near Huntsville and Miss Edith Hawkins of Roanoke.

Walter Thomas and Miss Margaret Knight, both of near Rolling Home.

Dr. Carson E. Davis of Moberly and Miss Mae Belle Chenoweth of Fulton.

SALINE.

Mrs. Philip Hooker, aged 30 years, died of a complication of diseases at her home in Marshall Saturday.

At her home in Marshall Tuesday Mrs. Louisa Ann Potter, aged 71 years, passed away. Five children survive her.

And now comes the Slater high school with 26 graduates and only five boys in the bunch. What's the matter with the boys?

Died—Mary Alice, the infant daughter of John and Lillie Westmoreland Ferguson of Fayette, Thursday. Death resulted from locked bowels.

Friday morning Edward Casebolt, aged 75 years, died at his home in Miami after a protracted illness. His wife and eight children survive him. The deceased was one of Saline county's most respected citizens.

MARRIAGES.

Fred W. Koche and Miss Hal-lie Sisson, both of Slater.

Frank Dunlavy and Miss Mary Braudecker, both of Marshall.

Thos. Alfred Buckland of St. Louis and Miss Agnes Allen of Erneston, Ill., both recently of Marshall.

There is a way to be satisfied when you make your farm loan—so simple—so easy—you ought to know about it.

See Minter & Lamkin, Keytesville, Mo., who offer the lowest rates and the best terms. They will show you the way to be satisfied. A pleased customer is their advertisement.

Minter & Lamkin, Keytesville.